

Resources for Educators: Order Form

Item	Unit Price	Qty	Total Price
Creativity at the Heart of Learning (33 page, 4-color booklet)	$ 20.00
A resource for educators that provides windows into the experiences of Opal School teachers who work in collaboration with children and families. This booklet explores the connections and relationships between literacy, the arts, environments and creativity. Photos, illustrations and experiences provided by Opal School students and staff.
Environments to Support Playful Inquiry (10-minute DVD)	$ 15.00
Highlights visually the importance of designing environments in preschool and elementary school classrooms that support children to wonder, imagine, interpret and reflect upon ideas and projects in playful, creative ways. Photos and quotations provided by Opal School.
Exploring Music as a Language (22-page, 4-color booklet)	$ 10.00
Preschool children and their teachers take a journey into the world of sound, music and the telling of stories during a three-month project. Includes the teacher's planning process, daily experiences of the children, and teacher/parent reflections.
Inquiry Into Wild Animals DVD (19-minute DVD)	$ 25.00
Teachers and children (preschool and kindergarten) document a long-term project into the physicality of wild animals. Teachers share their process of developing curriculum in partnership with children by observing children's play, provoking curiosity and supporting interests. A surprising and moving result.
The Wonder of Intelligent Materials (8-minute DVD)	$ 15.00
Demonstrates with photos, quotations and music, the importance of providing children of all ages with open-ended materials that tickle the imagination, spark curiosity, provoke thinking and inspire creativity. Photos and quotations provided by Opal School .
The Day We Met the Artist in the Woods (25-page, 4-color booklet)	$ 15.00
An encounter that takes place in a wooded area near Opal School inspires two stories: one from the perspective of the children and another from the teachers' perspectives. This booklet reveals the ways that Opal School teachers pay attention, listen, interpret, reflect and make decisions based on children's interests and observations. Makes connections between experiences and early literacy.
What is a Daily Journal? (16-page, 4-color booklet)	$ 8.00
Examples of the daily documentation of children's experiences in Opal Preschool. Includes comments and reflections from Opal Preschool parents and teachers.
			GRAND TOTAL:

Make checks payable to: Portland Children's Museum

Shipping: Please add $2.00 per item for shipping and see reverse side of this form.

Resources for Educators: Order Form

Shipping

Please ship to:

Name: _____

Address: _____

City/State/Zip: _____

Contact Name: _____

Contact Phone and/or Email: _____

Payments

Make checks payable to: Portland Children's Museum

Payments Via Credit Card:

Card Type: Visa MasterCard American Express Discover

Card Number: _____ - _____ - _____ - _____

Expiration Date: ____ - ____

Total Amount to be Charged: $ _____

Name on Card: _____

I, the undersigned, give the Portland Children's Museum permission to charge my credit card for the fees I have listed on this agreement.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Please return completed order with payment to:

Portland Children's Museum

Attn: CFCL Orders

4015 SW Canyon Rd

Portland, OR 97221

Fax: 503-223-6600

Email: educationoffice@portlandcm.org

Phone: 503-471-9902